from the Principal's Desk

I have noticed a lot of students playing in the yard after the siren has sounded for the end of the day. While this is fine there are some points that parents/caregivers need to be aware of:

- Tracey and I are on duty until 3:30pm when another siren sounds, all students apart from those at OSHC, should have left the school grounds by then. From 3:30pm there are no teachers on yard duty so students are the total responsibility of parents.
- The OSHC playground is used by students at OSHC from 3:10 until approximately 3:30 and those students are supervised by OSHC workers, Confusion can arise around supervision of students, fortunately there are parents who supervise their children but with approximately 30 students using the equipment at this time safety can be compromised.
- Students play in the garden after school. Produce from our garden goes directly to the kitchen when ripe to be used in the cooking programme. We have lost quite a lot of fruit and vegetables by students picking it and throwing it around (one apple tree has been stripped completely of apples). I have spoken to students at assembly about not picking fruit unless with a teacher.

We want students and parents to be respectful to each other and the environment. We encourage parents to stay and chat but please make sure you leave the school grounds at the 3:30 siren. We ask for your support with this.

A reminder that classrooms are opened at 8.30am.

No teacher is on duty before 8.30am.

If children arrive earlier they must sit in the Front Office or be booked into OSHC.

Please remember that the front of the school is a

Braeview School Basketball

Our School Basketball teams started competing at the Morphett Vale Stadium this week. Monday nights we have 2 Year 6/7 teams, Tuesday nights, 2 year 2/3 teams and Wednesday nights are the 2 year 4/5 teams. We are very pleased with the increase in the number of students participating in School Basketball this year. I would like to say a big thank you to the parents who have offered to coach our Basketball teams and to the other parents who have offered to help score. Parent help is vital for our teams to continue to participate and I know the kids love seeing their parents being so involved.

Thank you and Go Braeview!!

Save the Date!

On Friday 17 March from 2:00pm parents are invited to a Jolly Phonics Information Session. At the beginning of the year we implemented a whole school approach to teaching a phonic based spelling program.

Allison Livingstone will provide a snap shot of what the program looks like in Junior Primary and Magda Nowakowski will demonstrate various strategies and games that are used in the Primary classes. The session will be held in the Activity Room.

Around the Classrooms

During the first four weeks of the new school year, students have been engaged in a variety of learning activities that have focussed on themselves. Students and teachers have also been developing classroom norms for behaviour and quality work. Classes have also begun work on the Second Steps Program which is all about developing skills for learning, social and emotional well-being. Students in the middle primary classes have focused on developing empathy.

Welcome to Braeview

Year 6/7 students presented welcoming gifts to our new Reception students at last week's assembly. What a great touch and something that should become a ritual for our school. Making our Reception students feel welcome and valued can only have positive outcomes for the school.

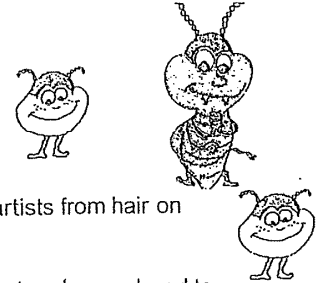

HEAD LICE

There have been several cases of head lice around the school. Can you please make sure your child's hair is tied up if it is long.

Head Lice Facts

Head lice like anybody with hair

Lice do not jump, hop or fly. People become infected by the lice swinging like trapeze artists from hair on one head to the hair of another head.

Lice may move onto hats, combs, helmets, hair ties and other surfaces, but must return to a human head to survive within 24 hours.

Head lice do not live in carpets, sandpits or on animals.

Not everybody will itch so you must look for lice and eggs (nits).

Adult head lice are the size of tiny ants and range in colour from skin-tone to dark brown. Each of the six legs of a head louse ends in a claw. These are used to grasp the hair with such strength that head lice are difficult to dislodge.

Nits are the eggs laid by female lice and are the size and colour of a grain of sugar. Heat generated by the body hatches eggs.

Eggs are laid very close to the scalp and stick like glue to the hair. They hatch within 7 days. The earlier the lice are identified and treated the less time there is for eggs to hatch.

Treatment and prevention

Removal of eggs must be done following application of head lice treatment. Eggs can be removed by combing with a special head lice comb or with the fingernails. If eggs are not removed the problem may recur.

Conditioner applied to dry hair weakens the grip of the lice and makes it difficult to hang onto the hair. Comb the hair with a special head lice comb and look for the lice by wiping the comb onto a tissue. The eggs are also easily identified this way.

Lice live on strands of hair but move to the scalp to feed. It is important that all of the hair is completely covered with the head lice treatment and is used according to instructions.

No head lice treatment will kill 100% of the eggs. You must use the treatment 7 days after the first treatment to kill any lice that may have hatched.

Wash combs, brushes, hair ties and hats in detergent and hot water.

There are 4 different types of head lice treatments available. All have different main ingredients, eg pyrethrins, synthetic pyrethrins, malathion and herbal agents. If a head lice problem continues try a treatment with a different main ingredient.

It is not as essential to wash bed linen as it is to treat the head and comb etc.

Lice can be weakened by thoroughly brushing hair morning and night. When injured or weakened, lice have difficulty gripping the hair.

Gel and hair spray applied to the hair can be used as a preventative measure against infestation – these products make the hair sticky thereby making it difficult for them to move around on the head

Get into the habit of checking the hair every time it is washed. Daily checking is necessary if there is an outbreak as everybody may not itch

Avoid direct head to head contact with others.

Don't share hats, combs, hair ties etc.

Keep long hair tied back or plaited.

Never use treatments as a preventative.

It is not as essential to wash bed linen as it is to treat the head and comb etc.
